Read again:-

Proceedings Nos.4698-700.Pg.F.21-96 and 3525-7.Fl.384 dated the 5th October 1898 and 26th November 1898 respectively, sanctioning advances aggregating Rs.50000/ on account of the acquisition of lands &ca. required for the Bangalore City Extensions and improvement.

Read also:-

Letter No.6127 dated the 27th January 1899, from the Plague Commissioner, requesting that a further advance of Rs.50000/ be sanctioned for the above purpose.

Order thereon No. S-216-7 dated Bangalore / 1st February 1899.

9718-98

A further advance of Rs.50000/ will be placed at the disposal of the Deputy Commissioner as recommended in the letter read above. The Plague Commissioner will be so good as to impress upon the Deputy Commissioner and President of the Municipal Commission the necessity for a complete immediate settlement of the advances already sanctioned, as well as for a settlement of the present advance as expended from week to week, as it is undesirable to have upon the Comptroller's books large unadjusted advances of this kind.

2. Separate orders will be passed as to how the expenditure upon

These extensions and improvements has to be made good by the

Municipality

For Secretary.
